Dear Amanda,

Welcome to our December Newsletter.

What a fantastic year for CDISC. Thank you to those of you who have supported us on journey and we are looking forward to an even more exciting 2010. In this newsletter, we review our year with contributions from Rebecca Kush and Dave Ibersen-Hurst.

We say welcome to new members and to our star members of 2009 and we review our recent Interchange in North America!

If you would like to make a contribution to future newsletters, please contact AJ de Montjoie ademontjoie@cdisc.org.

North America Interchange Success

CDISC rounded off the year with a very successful Interchange in Baltimore. You can read all about the presentations and discussions that took place in our article.

CDISC 2009 - Reflections from Dr. Kush

With such a busy year and CDISC involved in so many activities you may have missed some of our highlights. Read Dr. Kush's overview of an exciting 12 months.

Technical Thoughts - A time for SHARING

Read Dave Ibersen-hurst's review of the technical developments of the past year, as he waxes lyrical about the hard work of the technical teams and just how much has been developed in 2009.

ODM Version 1.3.1 Available for Review

The XML Technologies Team has posted the updated schemas and specification for the Operational Data Model (ODM) version 1.3.1 for review and comment. The review period closes 18 December 2009. Read all the details here.

News from the User Networks

This year we have even more companies that have continued to support CDISC for 5 years.

Thank you to all of you for your continued support.
