CDISC Technical Update for February 2015

Therapeutic Areas:

- The CFAST Therapeutic Area Standards User Guide (TAUG) for QT Studies v1 has now been posted for provisional use.
- The CFAST TAUG for Chronic Hepatitis C v1 has been posted for public comment, comments due 28 January.
- Coming next is the new Draft CFAST TAUG for Schizophrenia, due to be posted for public comment in January.

Foundational Standards:

- Controlled Terminology Package 20 is now available for use, including 108 new QS/FT terms and 444 SDTM and SEND terms.
- Controlled Terminology Package 21 has now been posted for comment, comments due 23 January.
- The CDISC Standards in RDF Reference Guide, prepared by the PhUSE CSS Semantic Technology group, has now been posted for comment, comments due 20 February.
- Coming soon will be the final version of the ADaM Analysis Results Metadata Specification v1.

SHARE:

- The first release of electronic metadata for ADaM is now undergoing final QC and is expected to be added to eSHARE in January or February.

Other:

- The 2015 CDISC Winter IntraChange team meetings are scheduled for March 18-20 in Silver Spring, MD, following the PhUSE CSS Meeting.